

Biography of Dr Saeid Khalouzadeh

14 th September 2024	Charge d’Affaires a.i. Embassy of the IR of Iran to Ireland
2017 – 2020	First Counselor and Deputy Head of Mission Embassy of IR of Iran to Croatia in Zagreb
2008 – 2017	Second Counselor, then First Counselor Western European Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tehran, Iran
2004 – 2008	Third Counselor, then Second Counselor Embassy of IR of Iran to France in Paris
2002 – 2004	First Secretary Western European General Direction, MFA in Tehran, Iran
1997 – 2001	First Secretary Embassy of IR of Iran to France in Paris
1995 – 1997	Second Secretary Western European General Direction, MFA in Tehran, Iran
1990 – 1994	Third Secretary and then Second Secretary, Embassy of IR of Iran to the European Union in Brussels

Education:

2002	PhD Political Sciences	University of Paris X – Nanterre, France
1991	Masters International Relations	University of Leuven (La Neuve) Belgium
1988	Bachelor’s Degree Diplomatic Relations	International Faculty of the Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Tehran, Iran

Born on 6th December, 1963, Mr Khalouzadeh is a career diplomat, joining the Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1988 in the Western European Department.

Mr Khalouzadeh is a fluent French speaker and his expertise is European Studies and the European Union.

A university professor, Mr Khalouzadeh is also the author of several books including:

- The European Union, the organizational structure and the main institutions of the European Union, 2005 reprinted in 2021 *
- European Geopolitics, 2017 *
- An Analysis of the Relations between the IR of Iran and the European Union: Practical Suggestions and Strategies for Constructive Interaction, University of Tehran, 2014
- Diplomatic and Consular Law, 2012 *
- Research Project on the Role and Positions of the European Union in the Middle East Peace Process, 2006
- The Role of England in the Power Equations in Europe, 1998
- The positions of the United Nations Security Council on the Iraq-Kuwait War, 1996
- The Effect of the Reunification of Germany on the European Community, 1993

Academic reference book*

Mr Khalouzadeh is married and has two children.